On Sunday 22nd Feb, I was rostered to attend and assist with the BBQ at RPC3. An Email had been sent out on Saturday informing stakeholders of the event. [Redacted] from Wilsons replied that he would pass on the information to RPC3 staff. At 12:30, there was no Wilsons presence at the BBQ briefing. We proceeded to begin our preparation. While setting up, a guard, [Redacted] from Wilson's came over and stated to me that children were assisting with the chairs and playing with the bollards, Actions that take place every week during setup. I said we will try to watch over the equipment. At this stage there were approximately 10 Wilsons in the volleyball area, many writing notes. During setup of the BBQ another Wilsons guard came over and quite aggressively, said "Listen, what's the go here". I told him that this takes place every week. I didn't understand why he was asking as Wilsons are at the BBQ weekly. This seemed to anger him, and with a raised voice said words to the effect of "he hadn't been at the BBQ for four Weeks" and then walked off talking in a raised voiced. I'm not sure of all he said, but several SCA staff distinctly heard him say the word "Fucking". I'm not sure if any children heard, but believe some parents may have. One of the other guards then came over and said "you gotta deal with him or we have to get the other girl down". I had little idea what this meant, but it may have had reference to the female staff member that appeared to be in charge earlier. I felt quite intimidated by the first guard when he got angry.
