He reports that around 19 January, he was removed from his room in Delta compound by Wilson Security officers and beaten in the chest, abdomen, and face causing considerable bleeding. [REDACTED] bloody shirt was then removed, he was handcuffed, and four officers "threw" him into a vehicle. [REDACTED] reports that he had in fact been assisting with negotiations, and several Wilson Security officers reportedly attempted to advocate on his behalf during the beating and removal, to no avail. Whilst being removed, a female officer, [REDACTED], reportedly commented "Africans, they deserve to be treated like this. These people...deserve to be finished." [REDACTED] reports he was then taken to Manus Correctional Institution, where he reportedly witnessed other asylum seekers being assaulted by unidentified officers; he also observed expatriate Wilson Security staff at the prison laughing and smiling during the incidents. [REDACTED] sustained injuries to his mouth, nose and wrist, for which he received no medical care. He also contracted pneumonia whilst at the Manus Correctional Institution, and was only taken for medical care to Lorengau Hospital 17 days after arrival. There, after nearly one day, doctors informed him that he was IHMS's responsibility, and he was transferred to IHMS at 1am. The ICRC recommends that all possible support be provided to [REDACTED] to recover from his treatment and illness in January-February 2015 and queries why medical assistance was not made available. If he should wish it, the ICRC recommends a full investigation into [REDACTED] allegations against Wilson Security staff during his apprehension and transfer.	07/07 Received from [REDACTED] and forwarded to TSL Security for investigation. 14/07 Interim response provided by TSL Security. 12/07 [REDACTED] attempted to see [REDACTED] 090715 however he was asleep.
